

Why the Isle of Man

In the increasingly challenging world of global financial services, we believe that clients and their professional advisers seek a stable secure environment in which to transact their business.

The Isle of Man is an established international finance centre supported by a modern infrastructure. The Island's financial services sector is diverse, with the main activities being banking, life and captive insurance, fund management, trust and fiduciary business, aircraft and ship management and e-commerce. These activities are supported by a professional services sector that boasts international banks, accountancy practices and a wealth of experienced legal firms, plus excellent telecommunications facilities.

The Isle of Man is a leading international business centre renowned for its innovation, professionalism and long-standing policy of positive engagement with international initiatives and standards.

The Isle of Man strives to be a model of political stability, transparency and financial supervision. We are at the forefront of best practise in international regulation and have been praised by global bodies including the OECD, G20 and IMF for our commitment to financial and supervisory standards. The Isle of Man has been the pioneer in introducing pragmatic regulation and consumer protection, priding itself in being responsive to international needs. The Island has signed numerous international tax agreements which reflect it's commitment to complying with international standards.

The Isle of Man has its own democratically elected Parliament and judicial system. In addition, the Isle of Man has a stable and diverse economy with over 30 years of continuous economic growth. The Isle of Man has a clear and simple tax regime with no Capital Gains Tax, Withholding Taxes or Wealth Taxes.

The Isle of Man Government remains committed to promoting the Island as an open, transparent and well-regulated jurisdiction and to enhancing its standing in the global community. Cayman National supports these aims and believes that the Isle of Man offers an attractive location for clients and their advisers, whatever the nature and scope of their business requirements.
